POSITIVE BEHAVIOR REINFORCEMENT POLICY

2023-24

Principal: Ms. Asma Abu Sheikha

Reinforcement of Positive Behavior

A. Moral appreciation and reinforcement shall include:

1. Encouraging student initiative and model behavior at all times
2. Verbal and written praise and encouragement in recognition of the student's behavior, as well as the parent for their key role in the development of the positive behavior
3. Messages of thanks and appreciation, certificates addressed to the student and the parents and/or recognition during school-wide events
4. Praise of student through school broadcasts, bulletin boards, journals or magazines, or by publication of the student's name on Ministry social media websites or by sending electronic messages through the SIS system
5. Assigning leadership roles to the students through the student councils, school clubs and teams

B. Material appreciation and reinforcement shall include:

1. All forms of awards and prizes
2. Improved behavior marks for students demonstrating progress on previous offences.

C. Educational Reinforcement shall include:

1. Granting behavior grades for the student who shows positive improvement after committing negative behavior
2. Encouraging student self-assessment and use of smart learning tools, using School Information System (SIS) to document their volunteer activity with the support of teachers and parents
3. Increased opportunities to participate in educational and national programs
4. Creation and dissemination of positive behavior programs in all classrooms; for example, nominating students as role models and honoring them
5. Granting distinction titles like Role Model Ambassador and Ambassador of Positive Behavior

D. Rating and classification of positive behavior:

1. Responsive: student demonstrates an expected level of response to positive behavior expectation; school continues to encourage them and maintains communication with their parent/guardian
2. Diligent: student meets and exceeds behavior expectations; their achievement shall be consolidated by various recognition methods like encouragement certificates, thanks to the parents, and assignment of greater responsibilities for the student to further develop his/her character and ultimately achieve excellence
3. Leading: student demonstrates leadership through exemplary behavior; he/she shall be encouraged and appreciated by certificates of honor and prizes, and his/her parent shall be recognized
